MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

MURPHY, District Judge:

On January 2, 2013, the undersigned Judge entered an order prohibiting Plaintiff from filing any future action in this Court until such time as he has paid the $350 filing fee for this action in full (Doc. 4).¹ The Clerk was directed to return unfiled any papers submitted by Plaintiff. Further, Plaintiff was ordered to include a copy of the filing ban order at Doc. 4 along with any papers he might submit to the Court while this filing restriction is in place.

Since the entry of the filing ban order, Plaintiff submitted two new civil rights complaints in August 2013. Both documents were returned to him by the Clerk, who also sent him another copy of the filing ban order.

On November 21, 2013, the Clerk received yet another new complaint from Plaintiff. In addition to his own complaint, Plaintiff submitted 18 other identical complaints, each one with the handwritten name of a different prisoner as the plaintiff. None of these complaints is signed by the purported plaintiff. All 19 documents arrived in the same envelope, bearing Plaintiff Jo's return address at the Etowah County Jail in Gadsden, Alabama.

This is not the first time that Plaintiff Jo has submitted complaints bearing the names of other individuals as plaintiffs. These documents contain no indication that any of the named prisoner-plaintiffs has authorized Plaintiff Jo to file a lawsuit on his behalf. Based on Plaintiff Jo's prolific recreational litigation history, these new complaints appear to be yet another attempt on his part to waste the valuable and limited resources of this Court. This conduct shall not be tolerated.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that any and all documents submitted to this Court by Plaintiff Young Yil Jo, BOP Register No. 01183-112, A092-248-783, on behalf of or bearing the name of any other person, shall be returned to Plaintiff Jo unfiled by the Clerk of Court.

The Clerk is DIRECTED to file copies of the 19 new complaints, and the envelope, as Exhibits to this Order for informational purposes only, and shall then return the originals to Plaintiff Jo at his updated address. No new action shall be initiated on any of these complaints. The Clerk is also DIRECTED to mail Plaintiff Jo another copy of the Order at Doc. 4.

Under the terms of this Court's prior order at Doc. 4, Plaintiff Jo may apply for a rescission or modification of that order's restrictions on the filing of any new action in his own name only, no sooner than January 2, 2015. Rescission or modification of the order may be sought at an earlier date only upon payment in full of all fees due to this Court, which now includes an unpaid $455.00 filing and docketing fee for his unsuccessful appeal of the order at Doc. 4.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: November 22, 2013
