

ORDER EXTENDING STAY 3:21-MD-3004-NJR

December 30, 2025

ORDER EXTENDING STAY. At this time, the Court finds it appropriate to extend the stay of the case-specific deadlines outlined in its January 2025 Order until March 6, 2026, to allow the settlement process to unfold. At that time, the Court will revisit whether to continue the stay of those deadlines. Accordingly, the Court hereby CANCELS the Status Conference scheduled for January 5, 2026. The obligations and deadlines imposed on individual Plaintiffs under CMOs 10, 21, and 21A remain in full force. (Docs. 469, 5158, and 5455, respectively). Individual Plaintiffs' counsel are reminded of this Court's longstanding efforts to maintain the integrity of this docket as outlined in CMO 18 and shall conduct themselves accordingly. (See Doc. 4242). Signed by Chief Judge Nancy J. Rosenstengel on 12/30/2025. (mlp) THIS TEXT ENTRY IS AN ORDER OF THE COURT. NO FURTHER DOCUMENTATION WILL BE MAILED. (Entered 12/30/2025).
