

United States District Court Southern District of Illinois

Nancy J. Rosenstengel, Chief United States District Judge
Monica A. Stump, Clerk of Court

ANNOUNCEMENT

On Tuesday, April 30, 2024, the Court will host a two-part continuing legal education seminar on “Anatomy of a Prisoner Civil Rights Case” and “Medical Claims.” Part 1, “Anatomy” will be held from 9:00-12:00 p.m. and Part 2, “Medical Claims” will be held from 1:30-4:30 p.m. When you RSVP, please indicate which seminar (or both) that you wish to attend.

Lawyers recently appointed by the Court to represent a prisoner and those interested in accepting appointments are strongly encouraged to attend this special seminar. Please forward this announcement to everyone in your firm and bring your associates, paralegals, and/or legal assistants, whether they are currently working on a case or not. Everyone is welcome.

This free seminar will be held at the East St. Louis courthouse, 750 Missouri Avenue, East St. Louis, Illinois. Participants will be responsible for their own lunch. Those attending both seminars will receive 6.0 hours MCLE credit or 3.0 hours MCLE credit for one part (including 0.5 hours for professionalism).

The facilitator for this program is an attorney very experienced in the area of prisoner civil rights litigation – Alan Mills (Uptown People’s Law Center). To register, e-mail registration@uplcchicago.org with (1) the seminar you want to attend or both, (2) your ARDC number as it appears on the Illinois Supreme Court rolls if you want CLE credit, and (3) your current e-mail address. Alan will confirm your registration and send you materials via e-mail. This seminar is very popular, so register soon to reserve a seat.

If you have any questions, please contact Tanya Kelley, Administrative Specialist, at (618) 482-9224 (Tanya_Kelley@ilsd.uscourts.gov).
