SUMMARY OF REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend and record verbatim court sessions for both civil and criminal proceedings; read back portions of court record as required.
- Provide transcripts within the time and cost limitations set by the Judicial Conference; electronically file with the Clerk of Court a copy of all transcripts prepared concurrently with delivery to the requesting parties. Fees for transcripts sold to private parties are established by Judicial Conference and are retained by the Official Court Reporter.

- Provide transcripts and/or realtime feed to the Court upon request, without charge.
- Perform such administrative duties as required, such as billing for transcripts, financial and other record keeping, preparation and filing of required Administrative Office reports, and responding to official correspondence and telephone calls.
- Maintain and safeguard records until they are disposed of according to statutory requirement and Judicial Conference policy.
- Adhere to requirements of The Guide to Judiciary Policy, Volume VI, as well as the district's Court Reporter Management Plan.
- Provide and maintain own compatible equipment and supplies necessary to produce realtime computer-aided transcription, including all necessary software, paper, and electronic storage media.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

Applicant must possess at least one year of prime court reporting experience in the freelance field of service or in other courts or a combination thereof and have qualified by testing for listing on the registry of professional reporters of the National Court Reporters Association or passed an equivalent qualifying examination. Realtime certification is highly desirable.

Applicant also must possess excellent organizational skills to permit the production of transcripts within strict time limitations, work well under pressure, and be willing to work as part of a team of reporters under the direction of the Operations Manager in fulfilling the needs of all judicial officers of the Court. Applicant must possess excellent communication skills, tact, judgment, poise, and initiative, and always maintain a professional appearance and demeanor.

BENEFITS

Judiciary employees serve under excepted appointments (not civil service). Excepted appointments are "at will" and can be terminated with or without notice, and with or without cause (i.e., without providing a reason). Federal benefits include paid vacation and sick leave, paid holidays, and retirement benefits. Optional benefits include health insurance, life insurance, flexible spending accounts for health and dependent care, dental and vision insurance, and a tax-deferred savings plan. Benefits are pro-rated due to part-time status.
