ANNOUNCEMENT

On September 17, 2025, the Court will host a virtual two-part continuing legal education seminar on "Anatomy of a Prisoner Civil Rights Case" and "Medical Claims." Part 1, "Anatomy" will be held from 9:30 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. and Part 2, "Medical Claims" will be held from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m.

The facilitators for this program are attorneys very experienced in prisoner civil rights litigation – Alan Mills and Nicole Schult, both with Uptown People's Law Center.

Attorneys recently appointed by the Court to represent a prisoner and those interested in accepting appointments are strongly encouraged to attend this virtual special seminar. Please forward this announcement to everyone in your firm and invite your associates, paralegals, and/or legal assistants, whether they are currently working on a case or not. Everyone is welcome.

This free seminar will be held virtually via Zoom. The seminar has been submitted for 6.0 hours MCLE credit for both parts, or 3.0 hours MCLE credit for one part (including 0.5 hours for professionalism).

To register, e-mail registration@uplcchicago.org indicating: (1) the part you wish to attend, (2) your ARDC number as it appears on the Illinois Supreme Court rolls if you want CLE credit, and (3) your current e-mail address. Alan will confirm your registration and send you the Zoom link(s) and materials via e-mail.

If you have any questions, please contact Megan Domina, Pro Se Paralegal, at (618) 482-9164, megan_domina@ilsd.uscourts.gov.
